Student Agreement:

I certify that my electronic submission is the version of my thesis or dissertation that was approved by my committee, and that I have obtained all necessary permission in writing for copyrighted material to be published in my thesis or dissertation. Further, I certify that I have obtained and attached hereto a written permission statement from the owner(s) of any copyrighted matter to be included in my thesis or dissertation allowing distribution as specified below. Copies of all such permissions are maintained in my files.

Please Note: You are the owner of the copyright in your thesis/dissertation. By executing this document you are granting permission to The University of Vermont to publish your thesis or dissertation on the World Wide Web immediately upon graduation unless otherwise specified.

I hereby grant to the University of Vermont and its employees the nonexclusive license to archive and make accessible, under the conditions specified below, my thesis or dissertation in whole or in part in all forms of media, now or hereafter known. This is a license rather than assignments, and I, therefore, retain all rights to the thesis or dissertation, including the right to use in future works (such as articles or books) all or part of this thesis or dissertation.

I agree that the above referenced thesis or dissertation may be placed in The University of Vermont electronic thesis/dissertation (ETD) digital library with the following status:

RETURN FULLY EXECUTED TO STUDENT

Please check one of the following:

- A. ☐ The University of Vermont is authorized to release the entire work immediately for access worldwide.
- B. ☒ My thesis or dissertation is based on data generated through research that will support other publications from people on the research team (such as my advisor); OR I am planning to publish all or part of my thesis or dissertation and know that publishers in my field consider open access electronic thesis/dissertations to be a prior publication.
- C. ☐ My thesis or dissertation contains intellectual property that has been disclosed according to The University of Vermont Intellectual Property Policy for patent and/or proprietary purposes. I have been in contact with the Office of Technology Commercialization and they have authorized blocked access to the entire work both on The University of Vermont campus and worldwide to protect the work for patent and/or proprietary purposes for the period indicated, my Invention Disclosure Form is attached to this document.

If you checked B or C above, please select the one of the following options:

- i. ☒ I request that The University of Vermont embargo (block) access to the electronic full text of my thesis or dissertation through the University Library for six (6) months* from the date my manuscript is approved by the Graduate College.
- ii. ☐ I request that The University of Vermont embargo (block) access to the electronic full text of my thesis or dissertation through the University Library for one (1) year* from the date my manuscript is approved by the Graduate College.
- iii. ☐ I request that The University of Vermont embargo (block) access to the electronic full text of my thesis or dissertation through the University Library for two (2) years* from the date my manuscript is approved by the Graduate College.

Important note:* It is the student's responsibility to renew an embargo through ProQuest and the UVM libraries should more time be necessary. Students should log into ProQuest to request additional time and also send an e-mail to both gradcoll@uvm.edu and scholarworks@uvm.edu including the student name, year of graduation, degree and the additional amount of time needed.

The undersigned agrees to abide by the statements above, and agrees that this approval form updates any and all previous approval forms submitted heretofore.
